

Fairfax County Public Library

Mission

The Fairfax County Public Library builds community and promotes literacies by providing access to programming, community spaces, technologies and collections of books, and other educational and recreational resources in a variety of formats.

Connection to the Countywide Strategic Plan

The Fairfax County Board of Supervisors adopted the first-ever Countywide Strategic Plan on October 5, 2021. The Countywide Strategic Plan serves as a road map to help guide future work, focusing on the 10 Community Outcome Areas that represent the issues of greatest importance to the community. The Department of Management and Budget continues to integrate the Countywide Strategic Plan into budget documents. For information on how the agency’s program performance contributes to these goals, please see the Performance Measurement Results by Community Outcome Area. For more information on the Countywide Strategic Plan, please see www.fairfaxcounty.gov/strategicplan/. The Fairfax County Public Library primarily supports the following Community Outcome Areas:

Community Outcome Area	Vision Statement
Cultural and Recreational Opportunities	All residents, businesses, and visitors are aware of and able to participate in quality arts, sports, recreation and culturally enriching activities.
Effective and Efficient Government	All people trust that their government responsibly manages resources, is responsible to their needs, provides exceptional services and equitably represents them.

Focus

The Fairfax County Public Library (FCPL) operates eight regional libraries and 14 community libraries located throughout the County to best serve all residents of Fairfax County and the City of Fairfax. More than 500,000 people have active library accounts. Cardholders have access to two million items including books, digital literary materials and non-traditional library items such as hands-on history kits, STEAM early literacy kits, book discussion kits, thermal cameras, nature backpacks, conservation kits, Chromebooks with Wi-Fi hotspots, and binoculars. With minor exception, library items circulate fine-free, removing a barrier to access for the library’s most vulnerable cardholders – replacement costs are assessed for lost items. The library provides free access to 450 public computers countywide and offers 3D printing service to cardholders free of charge.

Community members made more than 2.4 million in-person visits to FCPL branches in FY 2022, and the library’s web-based resources were accessed more than 38 million times by users searching the library catalog, downloading books, conducting research, accessing library accounts, watching training videos, asking questions, reserving meeting space and more. Online visitors have access to over 90 databases to meet a variety of business, social and academic needs.

All Fairfax County residents, with or without library cards, have free access to professional research assistance from librarians, educational and enrichment programs, homework support, public computers, Wi-Fi, and library space, including public meeting rooms.

In partnership with Fairfax County Public Schools (FCPS), FCPL began offering Library Equity Access Pass (LEAP) accounts to all FCPS students in October 2020. These public library virtual accounts are in addition to traditional FCPL accounts. They do not accrue fines or fees and allow students to borrow up to three items at a time for six weeks.

In addition to lending materials and providing professional information services, library employees connect people to learning opportunities for academic, career and personal success. Libraries offer workshops on popular software like Excel and Word, and help people learn communication platforms like Facebook, Twitter, and Skype. They provide a welcoming place for new Americans to learn and practice speaking English and adjust to life in the United States. Libraries also provide early literacy materials and support for preschoolers, connect residents with tax assistance, and provide access to technology that cardholders may not have at home, including 3D printers and equipment to digitize photographs, slides, audiocassettes, and videocassettes.

In FY 2022, nearly 86,000 people attended in-person programs and nearly 39,000 people attended online programs.

The Access Services Library Branch, located at the Fairfax County Government Center, removes barriers to library services for people with disabilities. Access Services staff provide personalized readers' advisory, books and magazines in alternate formats, tactile and large print games, audio described DVDs, and assistive technologies, including Talking Book players and accessories to residents of Fairfax County, the City of Fairfax, and the City of Falls Church. More than 1,800 people take part in the library's free Home Delivery Program and the Talking Book Program from the National Library Service for the Blind and Print Disabled.

The Virginia Room, located in the City of Fairfax Regional Library, serves as a regional history and genealogical research center. Staff there help people conduct business, academic, and personal research using primary historical resources and genealogical databases.

In FY 2020, the Board of Supervisors approved a budget allocation to support the concurrent renovation/construction of the Lorton Library (Mount Vernon District) and the Lorton Community Center (LCC). This project, currently underway, co-locates the library and LCC, creating opportunities for partnership and "one-stop" delivery of complementary public services. The building is expected to open for services in the fall of 2022. A new bond referendum was approved by voters in the fall of 2020 seeking funding for renovations of the Kingstowne Library (Lee District/planned to become a regional branch co-located with the Franconia Police Station, District Supervisor's Office, and other entities); the Patrick Henry Library (Hunter Mill District/planned as a partnership with the Town of Vienna); the Sherwood Regional Library (Mount Vernon District) and the George Mason Regional Library (Mason District). These renovations allow architectural, infrastructural, and technological upgrades to meet the needs of 21st century library customers. Other recent renovations have enabled the library to meet increased demands for meeting room space, seating, charging stations, modern equipment and technology, and an appealing place for County residents to relax, read, study, research and connect.

In September 2021, FCPL's Board of Trustees voted to cease charging late fees on the majority of overdue library materials. FCPL will continue to charge replacement costs for lost and damaged materials. FCPL anticipates the elimination of overdue fines to encourage former users who stopped using the library after a negative experience with late fees to resume using FCPL's services. Library systems nationwide that have gone fine-free have seen an increase in usership and an increase in the return of materials.

FCPL's services during the pandemic evolved with Virginia's recovery and were designed to maximize access to Library resources while maintaining a safe environment. On June 1, 2020, FCPL began providing contactless curbside services to allow the public safe access to FCPL's physical collection. In response to high vacancy levels, and a COVID surge, a reduced schedule was granted for the three-month period of January through March of 2022, when pre-pandemic hours resumed.

In December and January of FY 2022, in partnership with the Virginia Department of Health, FCPL distributed over 40,000 COVID test kits for at home use to county residents. Several FCPL branches hosted Vaccine Navigators from the County Health Department to promote nearby vaccination clinics.

Throughout the entire pandemic, FCPL has provided access to e-books, e-audiobooks, databases, Ask Your Library services, and My Perfect Read readers' advisory services. FCPL shifted spending to prioritize digital materials, expanding Available Now and Spanish language digital content throughout FY 2021. Wi-Fi access expanded to support residents with limited or no access to broadband. Programs for audiences of all ages moved from in-person to online, including the virtual Summer Reading Adventure. Each of FCPL's online story times for babies, toddlers, and preschoolers received hundreds of online views. Other popular initiatives included Instagram book challenges for teens and programs for adults exploring racial justice.

Cultural and Recreational Opportunities

In FY 2022, reference completion rates remained strong at 74 percent, substantially meeting the performance target, and FCPL recorded nearly 27 million contacts with customers via check-outs, visits, program attendance, and website usage. Though the pandemic impacted the library’s ability to conduct its annual survey to measure satisfaction, in FY 2020, customer satisfaction was reported at 91 percent, exceeding the performance target. This survey will be conducted again in FY 2023. FCPL will continue to identify opportunities and implement practices that improve productivity and customer service.

Effective and Efficient Government

Library usage continued to rebound from pandemic restrictions, recording more than 2.4 million in-person visits, more than doubling projections and easily exceeding the performance target. More than 50,000 new library cardholders were added in FY 2022, bringing the total number of registered users to more than 500,000, or about 43 percent of all residents of Fairfax County and the City of Fairfax. Circulation per capita grew by 5 percent to 8.8 items. With more than 10.5 million items being checked-out, circulation exceeded performance target by 3.3 percent. The library presents and hosts events on a range of topics of interest to the community. Attendance at library programs grew by more than 15 percent, with nearly 125,000 people enjoying author talks, book clubs for all ages, English conversation groups, technology workshops, writers’ groups, preschool story times, STEM-related children’s activities and much more.

In FY 2022, FCPL began operating in the final year of its latest strategic plan. The strategic values of being adaptive and community-focused have played critical roles as FCPL has tailored services throughout the pandemic. The library provides responsible and transparent cultivation and management of resources, exceeding 80 percent of its efficiency performance targets. FCPL is focused on results, meeting 71 percent of its outcome performance targets. Overall, in FY 2022 the library substantially met or exceeded 75 percent of its performance targets.
