

Confederate Names Inventory Report: Addendum

Acknowledgements: Community Research Partners Contacts

As the History Commission began developing a research process for identifying and collecting Confederate named assets, we contacted the organizations now listed in the “Community Research Partners Contacts” section of the Report. Listing is not meant to suggest there was response or reciprocity. It is to assure the Board of Supervisors that the Commission made a best effort to contact and include the local history community in the massive research necessary to create the Inventory.

Since posting of the Confederate Names Inventory, three of the organizations, the Great Falls Historical Society, the Bull Run Civil War Round Table, and the Hunter Mill Defense League, have objected to being included in the list because they did not contribute to the research effort. The History Commission regrets the misunderstanding and assured each group we would make public note of their preferences.
