

A message from Kathy Smith

Sunday, the Animal Shelter will host a low-cost rabies clinic here at the Sully Government Center (4900 Stonecroft Blvd). This event will be repeated in December and more information is below. On Monday, our Dulles Suburban Center Advisory Group will meet here and you can learn more about the cases they will be considering below.

Remember that election day is Tuesday! You can check your voter registration status and your polling place here: <https://vote.elections.virginia.gov/VoterInformation>

Animal Shelter Corner

Panda is an adventure seeker ready to explore the world (or at least your neighborhood)! He loves to run and sniff and check everything out - and he can do it all with a tennis ball in his mouth. He will make a great exercise buddy and would love to find a fun, active adopter who can keep up with him. He is very smart, learns quickly, and loves treats. And he is super handsome! He originally came to us as a stray, and he decided pretty quickly that shelter life is not for him. He can't wait to be walking by his new best friend's side on his way to a new, fun life! Rabies Clinic

This Sunday, November 6th, the Animal Shelter will be offering a low-cost rabies clinic! It's open to residents of any county, and will be held at the Sully District Government Center at 4900 Stonecroft Blvd, Chantilly VA, from 12 noon to 2pm on November 6 and December 4. Dogs, cats, and ferrets can be vaccinated at the clinic. Please ensure that dogs are on leashes, and cats and ferrets are in carriers. If you have a previous rabies certificate, please bring it! Each vaccination is just $15 (cash and check only), and you can also purchase a 2017 Fairfax County dog license for an additional $10.
